-NAVYA VARSHA

We are the students of VIGNAN INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT AND TECHNOLOGY FOR WOMEN'S. To all intents and purposes this pitch is about the commodity which was not yet introduced in our own country INDIA.

We have been all there : stuck in a bathroom stall with no pad and no one around to ask. And when its 10am and you still have a entire day to spend in a school or at work to get through, PANIC IS BOUND TO SET IN. NOT COOL! How are we supposed to take over the world if we're distracted from stressing about sanitary pads all day along?

Menstruation should never disrupt one's day , limit opportunities or cause PANIC.
